

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

TRAVELL C. HOLMES,

Plaintiff,

v.

DAVID BAUGHMAN, et al.,

Defendants.

No. 2:20-cv-1496 DAD DB P

ORDER

Plaintiff is a state prisoner proceeding pro se with a civil rights action under 42 U.S.C. §1983. Plaintiff alleges defendants were deliberately indifferent to his medical needs when they required him to use stairs despite having a “no stairs chrono” and he fell injuring his knee. In a December 2022 order, this court lifted the dispositive motion deadline set out in the Discovery and Scheduling Order pending resolution of defendant Soltanian’s motions for sanctions. (ECF No. 85.) On January 23, 2024, Judge Drozd granted defendant Soltanian’s motion for the imposition of terminating sanctions and dismissed Soltanian from this action with prejudice. (ECF No. 94.)

////

////

////

////

1 Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that any dispositive motions, as described in the
2 court's Discovery and Scheduling Order, shall be filed within sixty days of the filed date of this
3 order.

4 Dated: February 7, 2024

5
6
7 DEBORAH BARNES
8 UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17

18 DLB:9
19 DB Prisoner Inbox/Civil Rights/R/holm1496.msJ ddl
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28